As a local history society, we are of course interested in people's experiences and memories, so we would be grateful if you would take the time to answer the optional questions over the page. Please give as much information as you like.

Welcome to our Society

1. If you live, or if you have lived in Bitterne, where and for what period?

2. If you were educated in Bitterne, at which schools and when?

3. Have any of your ancestors lived in Bitterne? If so where and approximately when?

4. If you work, or have worked in the area, what did you do, for whom and when?

5. Do you have any special knowledge, interests or skills (e.g., genealogy) that might be of interest to our members?

6. Please give any further information that may of interest to the History Society.

Our charity shop and heritage and research centre in Peartree Avenue, Bitterne is always looking for volunteers. If you feel able to help in any way, for example as a steward in the museum, or serving in the charity shop please contact Ian Abrahams on 023 80431067.

Thank you for your time
